

ABC's of Study Skills

Ask your child about school each day.

Bedtime is important. Make sure your child gets enough sleep.

Choose activities your child will like. Leave time for play.

Do things together. Car time is a great time for talking.

Eat together as a family as often as you can.

Find a quiet place for your child to study.

Get to know your child's teacher.

Homework helps kids learn. Set a regular study time.

Involve your child in making decisions whenever you can.

Join your school's parent-teacher organization.

Know the school's rules. Your child should know them, too.

Libraries are free. Visit your library often.

Make some special time to spend with your child.

Notice and discuss any changes in your child's behavior.

Organization saves time. Have a special place for school supplies.

Play games together.

Questions help children learn. Help find the answers.

Read with your child.

Share a hobby or interest with your child.

Turn off the TV.

Urge your child to do his best in school.

Volunteer your time at your child's school.

Work near your child when he is doing homework.

Xtra hugs are a great way to say "I Love You!"

Yield good results by praising your child.

Zoom through these ideas one more time!